

Legislative Day in Austin Thursday April 18th

Legislative Day April 18th

Legislative Day (in Austin) is Thursday April 18th.

Headquartered at the Austin Convention Centeray includes Continental Breakfast at the Convention Cntr, transportation to/from the Capitol to chat with our local representatives or their staff, Luncheon at the Convention Center, and a choice of ONE of three afternoon workshops [Staying Inspired, Education Legislation, or Recruiting Hispanic Republicans]ALL for $69 if we register by MARCH 6th! If you want to attend, download the registration form at www.tfrw.org and POSTMARK it by March 6. If you want to attend, you can pay the regular registration fee of $80.

Transportation:

You can drive yourself or ride a bus with a neighboring club:

Bonnie Wilson, CCRW President, has investigated chartering a bus for this important one-day event. If we get a 39 passenger bus (filled) the cost per person will be an additional $39.

I love having my own wheels, but this will be the most convenient way to travel and also to truly ENJOY the day.

Decide right now. Will you join us for this annual 'Trek to the Capitol'? It will be spring weather in Austin, we will all wear RED and demonstrate of our ACTIVE support for our Texas legislators.

RSVP for the BUS to Jeannie Koenig, President, Galveston Republican Women 512-567-8975
